Dublin 2.

Dail Question No: 188

To ask the Minister for Transport if all drawdowns from frameworks by his Department or its agencies from 1 January 2022 to 31 December 2024, valued over €25,000 were accompanied by publication of a contract award notice on the eTenders portal as required by Circular 05/2023; and if not, to list any known contracts where such publication did not occur and the reason.

Dear Deputy Dolan,

Thank you for your query.

daa is committed to the achieving value-for-money in the acquisition of works, supplies and services. daa complies with relevant legislation, Code of Practice and internal governance set out in the Procurement Governance Framework and Sustainable Sourcing Guidelines. daa's procurement practices are conducted with probity and integrity adhering to the core principles of accountability, competition, equality of treatment, fairness and transparency.

The circular referred to, 05/2023, and the associated €25,000 threshold only applies to public bodies. As such this requirement does not apply to daa as a commercial semi state business.

Kind regards,
